Your Creative Process is about:

How your idea come about? Where did you take your pictures? What gear did you use? Did you have the support of friends or a professional team? What difficulties did you face taking your pictures? How did you solve it? Share your experience during the edition process and final selection of your pictures...this is about to share our experience, give us some advices and learn together...

This is a non-profit collaborative work. Choose your 10 best pictures of the same subject in .jpg file, A4 size; send me an email with a word document explaining your creative process. You must be the author of this pictures, and the owner of the copyright. As the owner of the website I reserve the right to publish the project I consider interesting, with good quality in the images and content.
